tāmahine.

I'm in my mid-thirties with a young family and 17 years of experience in paid ministry positions. Born and raised in Upper Hutt, I am no stranger to the Wellington Diocese. After nine different appointments across Christchurch and Wellington, God is calling me and my family to ground ourselves in a community for a longer season. This would be a new challenge for me and I am excited about the potential to go deep with the Tawa parish and its mission focus. We have been living in Tawa for the last six years and being able to have such a short commute will be quite the novelty!

I have always longed to work in a team environment, and the opportunity to join Digby Wilkinson and the rest of the crew at Tawa is going to be fantastic. Continuing to be part of the Wellington Diocese is a bonus. May God bless us all in this new season of ministry.

Notices

Service rosters for both St C and St P for March/April will be compiled soon. Please let the office know if you are not available for any duties.

Carpets and Vinyl at St C, St P and Emmaus Centre are to be cleaned Friday 31 January. Please help by clearing the Annex this Sunday. If anyone is available on the Friday morning to help move furniture in the Emmaus Centre or at St Peter's please contact the office. The cleaners will be starting early (8am at St C).

Mission partners on the move - Have you noticed how many of our mission partners have been on the move? In early January the Pyatts returned to Indonesia, the Johnsons to Taiwan, the Shanks to Germany, and Hannah Gennard is leaving for Fiji next Monday. In the reverse, the Robertsons are back from Thailand until October. They are living at Titahi Bay so expect to meet them. The Winthrops are in Cambodia and Margaret Poynton expects to return to Papua New Guinea for a few more months.

As we start our regular activities for 2019 do remember all these people and the changes in their lives. God bless them all wherever God has called them to be right now.

Please pray for Hannah Gennard as she flies out to Fiji this coming Monday.

Tawa Baptist church have a job vacancy for a part-time office administrator, contact Brodie Vernon blvernon@gmail.com for more details.

Please remember that it is everyone's responsibility to keep the buildings clean and tidy and secure.
