

Update for

Sunday 25 August 2019

8:30am-St Peter's Church—Traditional Communion Service

10am-St Christopher's Church—Family Communion Service

August is Missions Focus Month.

Tawa Anglican Church has a long history of sending people into the Mission field, we currently offer support to the following:

S & H Johnson (OMF)

Kim & Mary Robertson (OMF)

N & H Shanks (YWAM)

S & A Pyatt (NTM)

G Winthrop and N Palairret (Flame)

M & R Doragh (TSCF)

We need to raise a further $2500 to send to them. Please consider a donation. Ways to financially support our Mission Partners:

- Donation box in Annex
- In the collection plate
- By EFTPOS at St C after the 10am service
- Bank deposit—see back of this update for details

If you would like this donation to be receipted please include your Giving number and reference "Missions"

Meals on Wheels. Tawa Anglican Church has recently come into partnership with Kapi-Mana Meals on Wheels. Every week day about 75 meals in 4 separate runs are delivered from Kenepuru Hospital including about 30 to the Tawa Valley. It's a very practical ministry and an enjoyable one; some drivers have been doing it for decades. Meals are collected at 10.30am and deliveries take one and a half to two hours depending on the run and whether you work alone or in pairs. We could really use some relief drivers in September which would give you a chance to see if becoming a weekly or on call relief driver is for you. Tawa, Porirua East and Titahi Bay are the three areas you could choose to serve in. Julie Howarth is the Tawa Anglican contact (0274 856 585 or julie24@orcon.net.nz) if you would like to get more idea of what is involved or to come for a test drive.

Pop In Family Blessing Service: Sat 31 Aug, 3-3:30pm followed by afternoon tea. See Hayley for more details.
